

Scene Out

Clean Up blitz on lake and land

NEARLY 200 nature lovers got their hands dirty cleaning up Greater Springfield on Sunday. Led by Springfield Lakes Nature Care, two teams spread out across Springfield's lakes and parklands lend a hand for Clean Up Australia Day. Local scouts groups jumped in canoes to fish trash from the water while families joined forces to haul bags full of empty food containers, cigarette butts and even an office chair into bins. To see all the event photos visit couriermail.com.au/questnews/southwest.

Naomi Kerridge and Amelia Davis hit the water at Spring Lake to fish for rubbish. PICTURES: AAP/RICHARD WALKER

Amy Gosling, Indianna Petersen and Emily Gosling.

Ash MacFarlane and Bec MacFarlane lend a hand.

Ellamay Clarkson, Chelsiann Clarkson and Tahlia Heweldine.

Chloe and Jenny Davis of Springfield Lakes got the family together to help clean up their local parklands.

Event organiser Luise Manning leads the clean up.

Brooke Davis stayed for the free face painting.